

MyABEL Terms and Conditions

The Patient Portal [MyABEL] is a password-controlled, restricted access, secure portal offered to you by ABEL Inc. and its subsidiaries, ABELDent Inc. and ABELMed Inc. (“ABEL”). Please visit the ABEL Website Privacy Statement and Website Legal Terms and Conditions as they too are applicable and enforceable for MyABEL.

By logging onto MyABEL the first time and for each subsequent log-on, you confirm that you are eligible to access this account and you agree to observe and be bound by all applicable Terms and Conditions as may be amended from time to time.

Because MyABEL will continually evolve and because we may change, supplement or delete any of its functions, we reserve the right to modify these Terms and Conditions. It is your responsibility to review this page for any such changes from time to time.

Account Management

You acknowledge that all personal information you enter in MyABEL is true and correct and that you will not impersonate or attempt to impersonate someone else.

You are responsible for keeping your account password confidential at all times. In the event that you believe your account password has been compromised, you must immediately change it by logging into your account and using the ‘Change Password’ feature, as well as contact ABEL using the contact information at the bottom of this notice.

Encryption and Cookies

When logged into MyABEL, any data you enter is collected within a 128-bit encrypted Secure Socket Layer (SSL) session. Information entered here is thus encrypted while being transferred to ABEL’s secure servers.

In addition, the Portal uses encrypted session cookies to maintain required state and login information. These cookies are only stored in your computer's memory for the time your browser is open. When you close your browser session, these cookies are deleted, and no permanent copy is stored on your computer. No passwords or personal information are stored in these cookies.

Risks and Liability

MyABEL is provided AS IS and AS AVAILABLE. ABEL does not warrant or guarantee the accessibility, accuracy or completeness of MyABEL or any information contained within or communicated through your account. Your use and reliance upon MyABEL and any such information is at your own and sole risk.

Personal health information may be disclosed to an unauthorized party if you leave your computer while logged in to your account, share your password, or if your password is stolen from you.

ABEL, its employees, agents, subsidiaries, subcontractors, officers and directors shall not be liable for any misuse or loss of information, injury, damages, or claims of any kind resulting from access to or use of MyABEL by yourself or anyone else.

You agree to indemnify, defend, and hold ABEL harmless against all losses, liabilities, expenses, damages and costs including reasonable legal fees arising out of or related to any breach of these Terms and Conditions.
